

Communication and Hearing Enhancement Class Series

Did you hear that?

It's a chance to maximize your hearing potential!

Plan to attend if:

- You are struggling to communicate effectively due to changes in hearing.
- You have hearing aids but still have difficulty conversing in groups or in noise.
- You are interested in hearing aids but want more information before you buy.
- Your communication partner doesn't understand the effects of hearing loss.
- You would like to better understand how to maximize your hearing aid technology.

Northwestern

Center for Audiology, Speech
Language, and Learning

We provide small-group sessions for adults and their communication partners affected by hearing loss. Join our audiologist and team of audiology students to learn how to maximize your hearing potential and enjoy a more active and successful business and personal life!

Six Weekly Classes

WHERE:

2315 Campus Drive
Evanston, IL 60208

WHEN:

Wednesdays, 1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.
October 14 - November 18, 2026

COST: FREE

Registration Required—class size is limited.

Call 847-491-3165 or email NUCASLL@northwestern.edu

Communication is a two-way street! Bring a communication partner for the best results.

NUCASLL.northwestern.edu